

2009 Summer Day Camp Programs

To register, call (610) 353-1555 X232 today!

Half-day Camp

Kinder Camp

4-6 year-olds

Join and take a sneak peak at the natural world right in Ridley Creek State Park. Identify local animals and plants of the temperate forest while feeding birds, singing songs, playing games and making crafts. Don't forget to pack a lunch!

June 22-26

9:30-1:00 p.m.

$110 Members

$130 Non-members

Full-day Camps

Forest Friends

5-6 year-olds

Forest Friends enjoy what is probably their first voyage into full-day summer camp. Kids learn ways to help our local "forest friends" through hands-on experiences, games and crafts.

Aug 3-7

9:00-3:00 p.m.

$185 members

$205 non-members

Wildlife Detectives

7-9 year-olds

Wildlife Detectives uncover clues and discover the wildlife in Ridley Creek State Park. Campers identify local birds, mammals and amphibians while uncovering their needs to survive. Join to create earth friendly crafts, play games, hike, and practice fun ways to protect our Earth!

July 27-31

9:00-3:00

$190 members

$210 non-members

Earth Action Squad

10-12 year-olds

Campers protect our planet as they become environmental scientist for a week. The Earth Action Squad participates in organic gardening, puts alternative energy to use, and partake in water testing to identify the health of ecosystems. Camp parents are invited to our Earth Action Squad's Environmental Fair on the last day of camp.

July 20-24

9:00-3:00

$190 members

$210 non-members

Extended Day

Options:

Optional early morning and late afternoon supervision for full-day campers.

Before Camp Program

8:00-9:00 a.m.

$40 per week

After Camp Program

3:00-5:00 p.m.

$80 per week
